

WestArk Missions Points

AGAPE ASIA: We will be funding a ministry in Laos to provide needed care to girls, who would otherwise be abandoned and vulnerable to all kinds of evils. They will live in a Christian home, be able to go to school, and will learn trade skills, all while hearing they have a Good Father in Heaven Who loves and cares for them.

BULGARIA: Christo Arnaudov, who preaches at the Renaissance Church of Christ, and his wife Vania serve in Sofia, Bulgaria. West-Ark's aid helps them minister and give aid to Christian refugees, the sick and needy, and helps facilitate various church ministries. Our funds also help to maintain equipment and rent assemble space. Jeana Belote worked with Renaissance 2018-2020 to help jumpstart their children's ministry. Since 2010, Rick Odell and WAYG have participated in short-term mission trips in Sofia.

ETHIOPIA: West-Ark's involvement in the Lord's work in Ethiopia supports preacher training and evangelism as well as deaf student education and water well drilling projects. Developing the needs will hopefully deal with short-term food relief due to crop failures and impending starvation for some of our brothers and sisters there.

ESWATINI (SWAZILAND): Dr. Bob and Annette Whitaker established the Mathangeni Church of Christ Clinic in Matsapha. The outpatient clinic serves a densely populated factory area. In addition to the work of the clinic, they teach individual and group Bible studies.

GUYANA: Following 20 years of mission trips to Guyana, West-Ark began providing partial support to evangelist and church planter Narine Khublall, who we had sent to Bible training school in 1995-97. We are continuing our full scholarship for second-year student Devon Emanuel at the Guyana Bible School.

HONDURAS: In Tegucigalpa, John and Michael Carson serve with Breaking Chains to invest in relationships that act as a gateway to a relationship with Christ. They provide a home for eight young adults, food relief to those on the street and to their BC church family members. Their education program helps 25 students attend private school.

INDIA: After becoming acquainted with Jayakar Benjamin, West-Ark funded the Narasaraopet Church of Christ 's food relief program during the Covid pandemic. With our assistance the congregation also began serving a meal after worship services.

LAOS: We provide funds for Bible and vocational training of future Lao leaders at the Bangkok Servant Leaders Institute; translation of Thai and English Bible study materials into Lao; expense monies for Lao evangelists to assist rural congregations in the north and south of Laos; and regional meetings of Christians for Bible study and encouragement. We frequently provide assistance to school children and flood relief, and recently we provided Covid flood relief. Our efforts are assisted by the weekly contributions of the Lao Church of Christ meeting at West-Ark.

MOZAMBIQUE: As the newest member of the Makua Team in Montepuez, Mozambique, Brooklyn Howard will be taking on an apprentice role, working alongside this team in ministry, education, and church planting. She will be teaching English as a second language as well as leading women's ministry groups.

One family is working with an unreached people group of over one million people. They are translating the Bible into their language and sharing the translated Scripture in the community.

NIGERIA: We assist Christians in Nigeria in their evangelism and rural congregation growth in five states in Nigeria. Our efforts center on support for four Bible training schools, three weekly radio programs assisted by World Radio, and multiple regional seminars for Bible training, edification, and encouragement. We provide partial funds for rural assembly buildings, and recently we provided Covid food relief.

THAILAND: We provide salary and work fund expenses for Tuli Kaliboon's evangelism among students of two universities in Bangkok and his monthly visits to rural congregations in Thailand and Laos. We assist with salary and work funds for instructors at the Bangkok Servant Leaders Institute who also travel to assist rural congregation in Thailand and Laos.

UNITED STATES: Encompass Campus Ministry is a new ministry at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. This is being led by the Wolfes and Sigmons, who are former LFC members. Their goal is to serve OU students and equip them to live the all-encompassing gospel of Jesus Christ.

VIETNAM: We continue to assist the evangelistic outreach in Ho Chi Minh City by providing assembly space rental funds for the Saigon Church of Christ and scholarships to assist young and teen aged students with public school expenses. We have provided funds for Covid food relief efforts.

