

The annual TRUNK OR TREAT FEST will be October 25. It's such a fun opportunity to show kindness and hospitality to our neighbors, some of whom may never otherwise visit a church.

We get to love on our community, have some fun, and, of course, have a little friendly competition for the...

🏆 GOLDEN PUMPKIN! 🏆

These are the many ways that you can be involved this year:

Food Prep - We need people to come early (3:30) to wrap hotdogs in foil and get all the food laid out on the tables so that they are ready to enjoy!

Servers - We need people to help serve food and drinks in the gym. Last year we served about 250 people!

Hayride Helpers - We need helpers to keep Mr. Brent's Hayride safe. You may get to ride the Hayride all night long, so who wouldn't want this job?!

Candy and Chip Donations - We're also asking for help in providing snack size chip bags to go with our hotdogs. There is a big purple box in the foyer for donated items.

prayers

John Glidewell received good news that a custom hip will soon be built for him. Thank you for your prayers!

Bruce & Mabel Coleman ask that we pray for their five month old great-granddaughter, Ottile Williams, who is being treated for type 2 laryngomalacia.

Kay Garrett begins treatments for the next six weeks.

Wes Roper is still experiencing double vision in one eye. Please pray this self-corrects.

Dario Becerra asks us to pray that his mother gets a new job.

Cindy Glidewell is grateful for our prayers and asks us to join her in giving thanks to God. Her recent test at MD Anderson showed no sign of disease.

Caleb Binford asks for prayers as he is travelling out of town to visit family.

Sandy Chavis asks us to pray for friends who fell and broke their hips.

Anissa Hodo's father, Wendell Wardell, consulted with a specialist in Chicago to treat adrenal gland cancer.

Maggie Lahtinen hopes to start radiation therapy this week.

Pat Beard recently visited the ER for high blood pressure.
